PASTORS CORNER

Recently, I read my CAA (Canadian Automobile Association) spring edition magazine. As the weather warms people naturally begin to think of warm places to visit. The front cover headline alluded to this truth with these words, "25 New Favourite Places to Travel." I was captivated by the glossy pictures of faraway places and then reality and my bank account statement kicked in. I skimmed forward to the last article in the magazine entitled, 'Pause to Reflect' which asked the following five questions in regards to 2020: 1. Are you on track financially? 2. How's your health? 3. Are you happy at work? 4. Is your home in good shape? 5. Is your insurance up to date? These questions caused me to make a spiritual application in my day to day walk with the Lord. 1. Am I financially faithful to God? Yes! The banks will stress that RRSP season is here, hardware stores will stress that home improvements are in order, and vacations sellers will advertise sell-off vacations, but what about our financial commitment to be faithful to God? Have we chosen to be partners with God by being faithful stewards of His blessings? 2. Am I healthy? No! Many others and I seriously need to improve our health by having a regular exercise program. I am extremely thankful to the Health Ministries department for the wonderful and informative programs that they offer, but information without action is useless. God's ultimate desire is for us to prosper and be in good health. 3. Am I happy at work? Yes! I love pastoral ministry. I look forward to praying, serving, and visiting with God's people. The easiest part of my job is preaching a sermon. The hardest part of my job is reminding our membership that we must function as the body of Christ together in service and mission. We must seek to always extend grace and forgiveness to each other. 4. Is my home in good shape? So-so. Remember a home is different from a house. My house could use some interior work, but my home is my major concern. I am thankful for a loving wife and wonderful teenage children that keep me accountable. My constant prayer is that I will be an example and my family will choose to love Jesus. 5. Is my insurance up to date? Yes! However, after listening to Alvin Ram's presentation on Family Wills and Trusts, I was alarmed by the fact that 50% of Canadian families do not have a will. It is wonderful to sing "Blessed Assurance, Jesus Is Mine" but brethren please protect your family by accessing proper information and acting accordingly. After pausing to reflect it is now time to spring into action.

PRAYER FOCUS

If we keep the Lord ever before us, allowing our hearts to go out in thanksgiving and praise to Him, we shall have a continual freshness in our religious life. Our prayers will take the form of a conversation with God as we would talk with a friend. He will speak His mysteries to us personally. Often there will come to us a sweet joyful sense of the presence of Jesus.
